

Tom Boynton Finance and Supply Chain Executive

Tom Boynton is an experienced finance executive with more than 30 years in the Consumer Products industry. He has worked in Fortune 500 companies as well as start-up environments. A true “hands on” leader, Tom has the ability to work closely with shop-floor associates as well as with executive committees. He uses his broad background in Supply Chain and Commercial Finance to evaluate business options and select the most relevant choice among strategic options.

As a global leader, Tom has worked closely on M&A activities on three continents, bolstering his company’s presence in key overseas markets. His finance and accounting background provide him with the knowledge and experience to reduce costs and streamline operations.

In his most recent consulting roles, Tom implemented strategies to successfully transfer financial operations from Illinois to Texas, including recruitment of new personnel, saving over $2 million annually. Separately, he started up and managed financial functions for a consumer packaged goods business in West Africa (Ghana) and improved financial reporting for a $2 billion capital expansion by a major agricultural fertilizer manufacturer in the US.

Tom is an experienced and dynamic finance leader with extensive knowledge in plant environments and multi-plant settings. In addition, his international background provides him with deep understanding of the complexities of global business.

Tom holds a Masters degree in Business Administration from the University of Chicago as well as a Bachelor of Science (BS) degree from the University of Illinois. He is also a Certified Public Accountant (CPA). Tom is a member of the Illinois CPA Society and the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants.

In addition to his professional pursuits, Tom is an active supporter of the Boy Scouts of America. His leisure activities include golf, bicycling, and curling.
